

ROUND 1 11.30 - 12.45

- 1. Combating HIV as teenagers in Ukraine and EECA. Part I: Gaps & Solutions
By Nadiia Dubchak and Yana Panfilova, Eurasian Union of Adolescents and Youth Teenergizer.
 During this session, participants will investigate the obstacles in ending HIV epidemic in EECA from a perspective of teenagers. Moreover, they will discover the possible contributions that young activists can make in overcoming those barriers.
- 2. You(th) Lead!
By Alexander Medik, Program Coordinator CHOICE and Sanne Thijssen, SRHR Youth Ambassador.
 Are you wondering how you can make a change? This session will focus on how you can meaningfully participate and co-decide on matters which affect your live!
- 3. Stigma, drugs and HIV. Stories from Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan and Moldova in pictures.
By Adriaan Backer, Photographer and Historian.
 Adriaan Backer visits people in Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan and Moldova at home. Through pictures, this workshop provides us first-hand stories of these people who deal with stigma, drugs and HIV in their everyday lives.
- 4. Resistance: walking in the shoes of an activist in Russia.
 In harm reduction the involvement and mobilization of the community is key. This workshop deals with real life cases of violations of rights of People Who Use Drugs in Russia. What can a community activist in this field do to support her people?
- 5. Game-changers - Using games as interventions for sexual health.
By Geertje Postma, Executive Director WEB.foundation and Anna Melnyk, student in Philosophy of Science, Technology and Society, University of Twente.
 In this interactive workshop by WEB.foundation, participants are engaged in the development of new gaming interventions to improve sexual health for young people in Eastern Europe and Central Asia.
- 6. Druggy Diversity. Harm reduction for drug users in different cultures and among different user groups
By Sara Woods, Project Leader National from Mainline
 For 25 years, Mainline has been providing health education, offering training, a lifestyle magazine, and working with partner organizations abroad. All dedicated to the principle of harm reduction. This workshop is about harm reduction for drug users in different cultures and among different user groups.
- 7. Peer counseling: taking a step towards HIV positive migrants
By Reina Foppen, HIV Vereniging Nederland.
 The Dutch Association of PLHIW has a 30 yr. long track record of activism and empowerment. In a joint effort of both informal and formal HIV care initiatives peers are given an important role to improve access to care and information as well as adherence for recently diagnosed migrants for Sub Sahara Africa and the Caribbean.

ROUND 2 14.15 - 15.30

- 1. Combating HIV as teenagers in Ukraine and EECA. Part II: Peer-2-Peer Consultations
By Nadiia Dubchak and Yana Panfilova, Eurasian Union of Adolescents and Youth Teenergizer.
 While exploring the experience of Ukrainian youth activists, participants will look deeply into the role and techniques of peer-to-peer consultations in giving support to and fighting HIV among the youngest generations.
- 2. You(th) Lead!
By Alexander Medik, Program Coordinator CHOICE and Sanne Thijssen, SRHR Youth Ambassador.
 Are you wondering how you can make a change? This session will focus on how you can meaningfully participate and co-decide on matters which affect your live!
- 3. Stigma, drugs and HIV. Stories from Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan and Moldova in pictures.
By Adriaan Backer, Photographer and Historian.
 Adriaan Backer visits people in Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan and Moldova at home. Through pictures, this workshop provides us first-hand stories of these people who deal with stigma, drugs and HIV in their everyday lives.
- 4. Beyond Resistance: walking in the shoes of an activist in Russia
 In harm reduction the involvement and mobilization of the community is key. This workshop deals with real life cases of violations of rights of People Who Use Drugs in Russia. What can a community activist in this field do to support her people?
- 5. Game-changers - Using games as interventions for sexual health.
By Geertje Postma, Executive Director WEB.foundation and Anna Melnyk, student in Philosophy of Science, Technology and Society, University of Twente.
 In this interactive workshop by WEB.foundation, participants are engaged in the development of new gaming interventions to improve sexual health for young people in Eastern Europe and Central Asia.
- 6. Druggy Diversity. Harm reduction for drug users in different cultures and among different user groups
By Sara Woods, Project Leader National from Mainline
 For 25 years, Mainline has been providing health education, offering training, a lifestyle magazine, and working with partner organizations abroad. All dedicated to the principle of harm reduction. This workshop is about harm reduction for drug users in different cultures and among different user groups.
- 7. Dance4life across cultures: transforming traditional sexuality education for youth
By Marielle Arnoldus Coordinator Dutch schools program and Yulia Kovol-Molodtsova, business development and partnerships Dance4Life.
 The workshop will take participants on an interactive journey showing how the dance4life approach to youth sexual health can be used and adapted to engage young people in various cultures and contexts. There will be a particularly focus on the experience and lessons learnt in Russia and the Netherlands.

